

Lawrence.

Mrs. T. O. Sweet is again very ill.

Short aprons are in fashion. One of our school ma'ams has one.

Old Mrs. Musson is very low with consumption. No hope of her recovery.

Married, last Sunday evening, by Rev. Mr. Bailey, George Brunel to Mrs. Hattie Robb.

Mrs. Cleveland, alias Mantle, and family, recently left for parts unknown, bag and baggage, between two days.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Ackley is sick, and unable to teach. Hope to see her out soon. (Aha my boy?—Ed.)

We thought the summer had surely come, when we saw our city marshal with his white garibaldi on, but he had to take it off again.

Will Hill's "patent hen" proves to be a good hatcher, giving him 75 chicks to a "setting," but they say Will has to do all the clucking.

Prof. Jennings says the walking is good between Paw Paw and Lawton, but then he ought not to leave the ladies to take care of his baggage, they worry so about him.

Our marshal thought he had made a strike, by capturing a Kalamazoo thief, but when the Kalamazoo officer arrived, the prisoner was released, on account of being another man.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Webster have gone to Janesville, Wis., to take charge of the home affairs of Col. Burr Robbins, their son-in-law, while Burr and his wife are traveling with their celebrated allied shows.

If one of our places of business only had a saloon in the front part, instead of a shoe-shop, we should think it was a dive from Boiler Avenue, Chicago. Later—one of our blacksmiths has left town, and the back part of the shoe shop is deserted.—(The Editor imagines that this item and the preceding one, referring to the departure of Mrs. Cleveland, etc., should be read with reference to each other.)

Prospect Lake.

Mr. Sanders has sold the farm he bought of Del. Ashley.

Lewis Munsell has rented his farm to the Nowers boys, Henry and Johnny. They are wide awake business chaps.

Miss Cora Jacobs has been trying for the last week to have the measles, but has made a failure of it. Mrs. Wilcox is staying with her.
